

Wonderlic Sample Test

This set of questions is from the Wonderlick Assessment Test. The Wonderlic (tm) Personnel test is used to assess candidates for college placement or by a variety of employers, the Wonderlic Personnel Test (WPT) is a general test of problem solving ability that many consider to be the best measure of intelligence. The WPT provides the individual's ability to cope with the complexities of any particular occupation. The general consensus among psychologists is that cognitive ability--as tested on the Wonderlic--is the most reliable predictor of an individual's professional performance.
